The report of Great Chief of Records Conley shows a total membership in the United States of 178,000, an increase of 17,000 during the last year. The total worth of the tribes in the United States is nearly $2,000,000 and the amount expended for relief nearly $575,000.

The "long talk" of the great incohonee Hon. George E. Green, at the great council shows that harmony exists in the order, and a wonderful increase both in membership and wampum has been made during the past year.

William A. Jordan is now great sachem of the Massachusetts reservation. It is estimated that there are nearly 20,000 members of the order now serving in the United States army.

As a master Mason he learns that there are worse things in the world than physical death; that life is worthless when integrity is lost. So in every lesson, at every step, the ceremonies impress upon the mind and heart this paramount qualifi-cation of morality.—Masonic Standard.

General Ballington Booth of the Volunteers was raised to the sublime degree of master Mason recently in the presence of a large number of men in the Montclair lodge, New Jersey.

Noble F. Martin of Utica will direct the Masonic fair to be held Nov. 13 to 25 in aid of the new Masonic temple of Wilmington, N. C. The building will be dedicated about that time. Next to the W. M. himself, probably the welfare of a lodge depends more upon the secretary than upon any one else. There is nothing in Masonry which does not harmonize with the highest form of truth and righteousness. The title worshipful master is not used in Masonry as a term of adoration, but of sincere respect and deference. It accords supremacy in the lodge. Masonry asks no man to surrender any right or to take any obligation that will way interfere with the duties of life. It teaches a forgiving spirit and an abhorrence of bickerings and strife. To the unworthy the doors of Freemasonry should never be opened nor the veils of her symbolism drawn aside, but to the just, the upright and the humane the invitation still is, "Ask and it shall be given you." A Mason while under suspension from his lodge is deprived of all his rights as tals-Triple Link Notes.

A live, well conducted lodge should be able to banish the ritual from its pedestals. It is not an irksome task for the elective and appointive officers to commit to memory the few brief charges of the opening and closing ceremonies and then render them in an impressive and diguified manner, as if the words meant something. In nine lodges out of ten the body is opened and closed in a hurried, irreverent manner by a most careless, indiffer-ent reading of the words of the ritual in a way calculated to cause the average member to lose all respect for both offi-cers and lodge.—Philadelphia Press. The salary list of the grand lodge of representatives was increased to 189 at the recent session at Detroit. Mileage expenses for the representatives to the sovereign grand lodge were changed from 10 cents a mile to 12 cents a mile east of the Rocky mountains and from 9 cents a mile to 11 cents a mile west of the same line. Then it was reconsidered and the old rate re-established. A cane formerly owned by Thomas Wildey, the "founder of Odd Fellow-ship," was presented to the sovereign injured at all by the wound he got. Richmond was selected by the sovereign grand lodge as the place for the 1901 encampment. The I. O. O. F. International Press association elected Mrs. Eunice Meiville of Minneapolis president and John Burlette of Concord, N. H., secretary. Nearly $1,500,000 has been invested in uniforms and arms of the Patriarchs Militant, and the hanners and flags of the organization represent another expenditure of close to $100,000. The report of the grand treasure showed that during the past year $62,-781.56 had been paid out for warrants and that $48,671.03 remained in the sovereign grand lodge treasury.

Massachusetts is for grand secretary $1,500, assistant grand secretary $1,000. grand instructor $1,000 and grand treasurer $300. The number of sovereign grand lodg

The Rebekah lodges of St. Paul celebrated the forty-eighth anniversary of the ladies' branch of Odd Fellowship with a grand ball, the proceeds of which were donated to the Odd Fellows' home at Northfield. Lodges all over Pennsylvania seem t

The Law Regarding Initiations Gossip of the Bees.

The initiation of all candidates for membership shall be in strict accordance with the ritual as authorized by the supreme tent, and no tent shall in any manner add to, change or modify said initiatory ceremony. No tent shall use any side degree or in any other manner vary from the initiatory services as provided by the supreme tent either at a regular or special review or at any other meeting of the Maccabees.

Fairmount tent is one of the most progressive in Indiana. It has a uniformed band of good musicians.

Kansas is a field ripe for the extension and upbuilding of Maccabee fraternity and protection, and the order will grov and prosper here in spite of all obstacles, and if it receives the right sort of assistance it will soon be the leading order of the state.

Every member ought to make it his business to advertise the order and get to work to increase its membership. Los Angeles tents are all in a prospeous condition and are increasing in men bership rapidly. Maccabeeism has a firm hold on the wide awake business men of the southern California metropolis.

gave liberally. A poor widow gave two mites, but it was all her living for that the expense it eems almost too great day. Men would have condemned her a burden for any famact as one lacking judgment, but Christ ily in moderate circommended the poor widow and decumstances to endure. clared that she had given more than all to avoid most of these Undoubtedly that which led Christ unnecessary expenses besides preventing a great deal of the to commend the widow's gift was the sickness itself. fact that it was the offering of a humble heart, full of love to God. It was an expression of her gratitude to God. It was the measure of her love, and in God with all her being. Love should be the prompter of our gifts and the measure of them, but, alas, it is not always so, or, if it is, the love of many must be very small indeed. This gift of love
